Warwick Group CONSULTANTS

Washington DC's Leading Coastal Advocacy Firm

Trust - Knowledge - Results
Call (202) 787-5770

Warwick Group Consultants is a federal lobbying firm in Washington, DC specializing in representing coastal local governments. We work with Congress and federal agencies, such as the Corps of Engineers and FEMA, to ensure coastal communities have the resources necessary to be resilient to coastal storms and flooding.

OUR EXPERTISE

Coastal Infrastructure

- Beach Nourishment
- Dredging & Beneficial Use
- Living Shorelines
- Emergency Seawalls

Municipal Infrastructure

- Public Facilities
- Stormwater Management
- Transportation
- Affordable Housing
- Emergency Management

Legislation

- Water Resources Development Act
- Project Authorization, Deauthorization & Modification
- Targeted Water Resources Provisions
- Appropriations

US Army Corps of Engineers Consulting

Warwick Group engages all levels of the Corps of Engineers on client projects, including leadership from local Districts, regional Divisions, DC Headquarters and the Executive Branch.

Experience in Washington

Our consistent results are the product of our experience, knowledge and persistence in Washington, DC.

Exceptional Value

Warwick Group consistently delivers 20:1 return-on-investment for its clients.

43 YEARS IN BUSINESS

$1.5 BILLION SECURED

150+ CLIENTS

Our Team

Howard Marlowe, President
Dan Ginolfi, Managing Partner
Cassandra Beeler, Policy Associate

Howard.Marlowe@WarwickConsultants.Net
WarwickConsultants.net

5425 Wisconsin Ave
Chevy Chase, MD 20815